

Nuchatlaht Tribe

P.O. Box 40
Zeballos, BC V0P 2A0
Phone (250) 332-5908
Fax (250) 332-5907

Lands and Resources Worker (Deadline: October 6, 2017)

Nuchatlaht Tribe, a member tribe of Nuu-chah-nulth Tribe, is seeking one (1) Lands and Resources Worker to join our team. We're looking for someone with a positive and friendly attitude. The Lands and Resources Worker will do the administrative work for the Forestry and Fisheries departments.

This position's work hours will be part-time with flexible work arrangements available.

Primary Responsibilities

- Engage with government, industry, and other first nations
- Handles the forestry referrals and consultation process
- Creates and oversees the natural resource management plan
- Harvests and distributes food fish
- Creates a training and transition plan for a Nuchatlaht Tribe member to take over role
- Analyzes forestry and fisheries data and presents it to Nuchatlaht Tribe's Band Manager and Chief and Council
- Utilizes Nuchatlaht Tribe's quotas on fish
- Teach Nuchatlaht members to utilize the wealth of ha'houlthee (chiefly territories)
- Oversees the Forest Consultation and Revenue Sharing Agreement with the Province of BC

Qualifications

- Possesses a current valid Small Vessels Operating Proficiency (SVOP) Certificate
- Possesses a current valid Class 5 driver's license
- Possesses a working vehicle and is willing to travel
- Bachelor's degree, preferably in forestry, biology or other sciences
- Willing to take on the job training
- Basic understanding of computers, the internet and emails
- Advanced understanding of Excel, Microsoft Word and PowerPoint
- 2 years' experience in GIS mapping
- 2 years' experience in this type of work (forester, biologist, etc.)
- Familiar with the following acts: The BC Forest Act, the Canadian Fisheries Act, and the Canadian Indian Act

Wages

The successful applicant will be paid a maximum of $30/hour, depending on qualifications held.

How to Apply

Please apply by ending your résumé as either a Microsoft Word or PDF file to administrator@nuchatlaht.com. Please include "Lands and Resources Worker" in the subject line of your e-mail.